

Thursday, May 11, 1876.

Knox County Bible Society.

Sleighs were in use at Dover on the first of May.

of Christian benevolence, of human helpfulness and brotherhood, which fall as generally as the rain from heaven in blessing upon the lives of thousands over all the land, are not flashed across the continent by the telegraph, occupy little space in the daily papers and in the majority of cases are known to few save those who perform or are benefited by them. And frequent as are appalling crimes, and

♣ The State Sunday school-Convention is to be held in Belfast on the 24th and 25th. We will establish the programme next week.

Knox County Lodge I. O. of G. T.

There were two other resolutions, one directing the publication of the proceedings, and the other expressing thanks to Good Samaritan Lodge for generous entertainment.

It was voted that delegates to future sessions of the County League be required to furnish copies of Three inmates of the Insane Hospital named Carver, Luke and Pape made a murderous assault on a keeper named Edmunds, on Tuesday morning and then escaped. Carver, who is very sane, was retaken, but the others were still at large last night. Edmunds will recover, though badly hurt.

NEW YORK, May 8, 1876.

[illegible]

Washington Correspondence.

ing out and disappearing. The best of the not no longer than five years and some not more than three years. Most of the streets will, however, remain in pretty good condition through the centennial year. The concrete pavements last longer than the wood and are more rapidly repaired.

On that night I started out with two of my friends to go to church. After we had walked a little way I told them that I did not want to go very well and that I would go back. I turned around and went into a place where they were selling opium. I got some and then went and smoked some whisky. I put them together and drank them. I then went back to my room.

found afterward. After I had cut off the piece of shaft, I went out, walked around together. I invited her to go into a saloon and she did so. After we had some refreshments I went home with her and remained sometime and went to sleep.

the argument being that such abolishment would not be economical, since it would necessitate the appointment of additional post office clerks. The chairman decided that the abolition of the office was primarily

In the Senate, Monday, May 8th, a com-

The small pox has taken a new start in Dixfield. There are eight new cases in the neighborhood, bordering upon Carthage, and near the place where it first broke out in Carthage. Mrs. Fish died from the disease Thursday night.

an Spear has recovered and returned to this port. The fire was subdued, with but slight damage.

 A valuable truck horse, belonging to Mr.

 The Brig M. C. Haskell, of this port, which went ashore on Wells Beach, was successfully floated last week and was towed to Portland on Wednesday, the 3d. She still remains there in charge of the wreckers, where she is being put in at the Universalist Vestry, last Sunday evening, upon "Future Limited Punishment," presenting the view most generally held in the Universalist denomination at the present day—viz., that the consequences of human action and the effects of human character extend beyond the present life and that God's moral and spiritual laws are the same and immutable in this and in all worlds.

15* Last Saturday morning the police seized, at the steamboat wharf, four boxes, marked "diamond C," each enclosing a ten-gallon keg. The

It was performed at Pillsbury Hall, on Thursday and Friday evenings, May 8th and 9th, 1869, and again on the following Monday evening. For the rest two performances upwards of 100 reserved seats were sold at 75 cts. each and the rest of the special mention was made of Dea. J. Shaw and Margaret Warren. Mr. Chase had been pleasantly associated with fifteen different pastors in the city, no other church having had less than two during the four years, viz.: Congregationalists, Revs. Cutter and Hall; Methodist, Revs. Wardwell, Knowles, and Beese; Colar street Baptist, Revs. Rattray and Haskell; Free Baptist, Revs.

lines Hall. The scenery, specially painted for the operetta by Mr. E. A. Burgess, was excellent.

and would not shame any theater. The landscape

The vote establishing the salary of City Liquor agent at $200 was reconsidered, and a vote was cast fixing the salary at $500, by a yeas and nays.

Williams, Mortland, Whitney and Jones; na ys,

The Board voted that the regular policemen will be three in number, including the City Marshal. The Board or Aldermen refused to grant application of C. F. Wood for permission to spend a sign across the street between Slough Union Blocks.

